SUMMARY

Introduction

It is necessary for any person or institution to be aware of new developments or news that arise on issues that affect us directly. For this reason, this press dossier has been compiled so that the entire Adorers family can be "up to date".

In order to achieve this objective, we will gather news on a bi-weekly basis, based on three fundamental axes:

1. The presence of our Congregation in the media.
2. News about the different projects of the Adorer Family.
3. News about Human Trafficking and Sexual Exploitation.

The aim of these materials is to make the Adorer Family aware of the social work carried out by our Congregation as well as the dramatic situation against which, fundamentally, we put all our effort and commitment.

Abstract: Within the framework of the #TIATAS project, both our colleagues from @proyectoesperanza and SICAR cat have carried out focus groups with survivors of human trafficking attended in both projects

Your opinion is crucial for the preparation of educational materials that we intend to provide tools to professionals in the detection of signs of trafficking, in vulnerable groups such as minors and asylum seekers.

In the form of a guide, we want to:

- Facilitate the detection of signs and/or self-identification as a victim of trafficking.
- Report on access to rights as possible victims of this crime.
- Advise on security and protection

The European project TIATAS is carried out in countries that receive a large number of Third Country Nationals (NTPs) and its objective is to improve the situation of refugees and migrants who are victims of trafficking, through early identification and access to Comprehensive support for their recovery .

Abstract: The US Department of State has published the TIP Report, a report that analyzes human trafficking in more than 180 countries, including Spain. As an entity specialized in traffic in Catalonia, we have once again participated as informants.

According to the #InformeTIP2022, in Spain, traffickers exploit foreign victims and, to a lesser extent, Spanish victims in state and foreign territory.

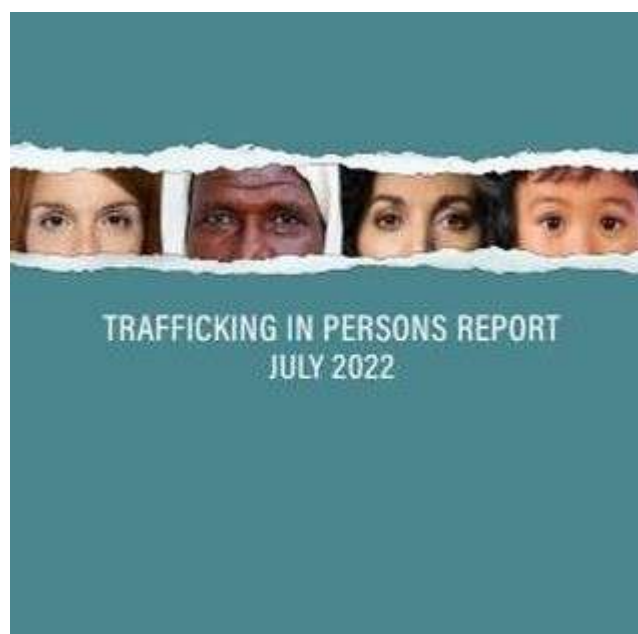

The pandemic increased labor traffic, especially in agriculture, domestic work, and cannabis cultivation in Catalonia .

Ukrainian refugees, especially women and children fleeing war, are vulnerable to human trafficking

The report also makes some recommendations to Spain such as:

- Investigations, trials, and convictions for traffic crimes, particularly for forced labor, are increasing.
- Allow formal identification of victims without requiring law enforcement interaction .

Abstract: Our Social Work Service makes various resources available to survivors of human trafficking. One is the Voluntary Return, which facilitates victims of trafficking or potential victims of this crime, identified or not, the voluntary return to the country of origin, in conditions of safety and dignity. Since 2014, we have had a cooperation agreement with the International Organization for Migration, which guarantees the safety of those who wish to give themselves another chance in their country.

Abstract: We fondly remember this photo from the week of March 8, a few hours before the demonstration through the streets of Madrid.

Going back to make-up or not according to the tastes of each woman, fixing her hair, and choosing her clothes is a daily act that takes on a new meaning. I do it for myself. To look good and to choose every day to DRESS me with freedom and illusion.

This small gesture is something that is worked from the educational service in the intervention with the survivors of trafficking. Small gestures that reflect great internal changes. Leave us in the comments what everyday gesture you take care of with care every day.

We share some of the acknowledgments that authorities, companies, or civil society entities have given us for fulfilling our mission of supporting victims of trafficking. Some of them in these 23 years have been the Community of Madrid, the Banco de Alimentos, the Insurance Solidarity Awards through INESE, Lilly, the VI King of Spain Human Rights Awards, the La Caixa Foundation, the Ministry of Health, Social Services and Equality, Civil Guard, Alandar. They mean encouragement to us and reinforce our conviction that our daily work accompanying and supporting survivors makes sense. Tell us which one surprised you the most. We will love to read you in the comments.

Abstract: The Group of Experts in Action against Trafficking in Human Beings (GRETA) of the Council of Europe published its annual report for 2021 on July 13.

In 2021, GRETA was able to achieve several milestones despite the negative impact of the Covid-19 pandemic and continued to develop its cooperation with other Council of Europe bodies, other international organizations, and civil society to prevent and combat human trafficking.

In the report, GRETA President Helga Gayer emphasizes that child trafficking has continued to increase despite legislative and policy measures taken by states parties to the anti-trafficking convention. "The Covid-19 pandemic has made children even more vulnerable to trafficking, including exploitation via the internet.

All actors involved in action against human trafficking must step up efforts to combat child trafficking and develop innovative approaches to protect children," he said.

on online and technology-enabled trafficking in human beings based on information provided by 40 States parties to the Council of Europe Convention on Combating Trafficking in Human Beings. human resources, 12 NGOs, and two information technology companies.

The study assesses the extent to which technology affects human trafficking, the operational and legal challenges in detecting, investigating, and prosecuting online and ICT-facilitated human trafficking crimes, and contains a set of recommendations.

These include internet monitoring, web scraping tools, and social media analytics. The participation and cooperation of a wide range of agencies and the sharing of knowledge are crucial, as is cross-border cooperation to obtain electronic evidence.

Abstract: Today we want to share a testimony that, although it is already a few years old, we remember with great affection, since both Ayo's story and the process of collaborating with the media were very good. Her anonymity is respected with careful and aesthetic shots that dignify the story told in this case by our Political Advocacy Awareness Coordinator in such a way that the survivor focuses on telling her story from her recovery process. It is a way to report and make visible the trafficking of women without making the woman go through again by having to tell her story again. We thank COLPISA for the professionalism of the team, their gaze and focus helped Ayo feel good after her intervention. For us, this is a reflection that the work has been done well.

Abstract: Transparency and accountability have been part of our identity since our inception. The commitment to our mission is expressed day by day not only before funders, collaborators, or donors but especially towards the women with whom we intervene. They set new challenges for improvement every day. Our quality focus must be them, the women survivors of trafficking.

We want to make you part of our work, the achievements made and the challenges to be met. The report collects our activities annually and is an exercise of review and constant improvement for the team. In these links, you can download the two Impact Assessment Reports, as well as recommendations and other relevant documentation.

Our accounts are audited by FGH Auditores. In addition, since 2012 Proyecto ESPERANZA maintains its commitment to quality through the renewal of the EFQM seal of excellence.

We have an open and transparent communication policy with our audiences regularly through the web, social networks, annual reports, and newsletters.

Every year we organize an awareness day open to participation, debate, and the exchange of good practices against trafficking.

Abstract: CITCO has published the 2017-2021 balance of victims of trafficking. Several victims of trafficking for sexual exploitation were identified in 201 (136), victims of trafficking for labor exploitation (51), and patra MF (2). In 2021, no victims of trafficking have been identified for the commission of criminal activities or for begging.

We need to continue reinforcing the cooperation work to increase the identification of the most under-detected cases of trafficking.

also Trafficking aims to influence the regulations, public policies, and action protocols against Trafficking in Human Beings in Spain, to guarantee the protection and access to rights of women and girls who are victims of trafficking for those purposes of exploitation (in forced labor or services in domestic employment, for forced crime and forced marriages) that have remained invisible and under detected.

Project: Kreditá na Bo.

Source: Facebook

Date: 27/07/2022

Abstract: The fight against human trafficking must be a responsibility, a fight for everyone. The Credit project Na Bo, within the scope of its activity, organized today, July 27, a Talk Round with their beneficiaries to raise awareness about the problem of human trafficking. According to the United Nations (UN), in the Palermo Protocol (2003), human trafficking is considered "the recruitment, transportation, transfer, accommodation or reception of persons using the threat or use of force or other forms of coercion over, kidnapping, fraud, deception, abuse of authority or position of vulnerability or the giving or accepting of payments or benefits to obtain the consent of a person having control over another for exploitation."

This year, the theme adopted by the United Nations on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) is related to the use and abuse of technologies, since the results revealed by the report of November 3, 2021, showed that the victims are seen affected by criminal practices on the internet.
